

116TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

S. 2085

To authorize the Secretary of Education to award grants to eligible entities to carry out educational programs about the Holocaust, and for other purposes.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

JULY 10, 2019

Ms. ROSEN (for herself, Mr. CRAMER, Mr. RUBIO, and Mr. BLUMENTHAL) introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on Health, Education, Labor, and Pensions

A BILL

To authorize the Secretary of Education to award grants to eligible entities to carry out educational programs about the Holocaust, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Never Again Education
5 Act”.

6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

7 The Congress finds the following:

8 (1) The United States has demonstrated a com-9 mitment to remembrance and education about the

1 Holocaust through bilateral relationships and en-
2 gagement in international organizations such as the 3 United Nations (UN) and the International Holo-4 caust Remembrance Association (IHRA); the United 5 States works to promote Holocaust education as a 6 means to understand the importance of democratic 7 principles, use and abuse of power, and to raise 8 awareness about the importance of genocide preven-
9 tion today.

10 (2) The Congress has played a critical role in 11 preserving the memory of the Holocaust and pro-12 moting awareness, including by authorizing the 13 United States Holocaust Memorial Museum as an 14 independent establishment of the Federal Govern-
15 ment to ensure that “the study of the Holocaust be-16 come part of the curriculum in every school system 17 in the country”, as well as by establishing a national 18 Holocaust Remembrance Day in 1978.

19 (3) The Congress has gone on record in support
20 of expanded Holocaust education to increase aware-21 ness about Holocaust history, counter prejudice and 22 discrimination, and enhance efforts to teach its uni-
23 versal lessons about human behavior and societal co-24 hesion.

1 (4) More than 70 years after the conclusion of 2 World War II, with the decreasing number of eye-3 witnesses and growing distance of students and their 4 families from this history, it is important to institu-
5 tionalize education about the events of the Holocaust
6 such as the Nazis' racist ideology, propaganda, and 7 plan to lead a state to war and, with their collabo-
8 rators, kill millions—including the systematic mur-
9 der of 6,000,000 Jewish people; as well as the perse-
10 cution and murder of millions of others in the name 11 of racial purity, political, ideological, and behavioral 12 grounds, among them Roma, the disabled, the Slavic 13 people, Communists, Socialists, Jehovah's Witnesses, 14 and homosexuals.

15 (5) As intolerance, antisemitism, bigotry, and 16 all forms of hate are promoted by hate groups, Holo-
17 caust education provides a context in which to learn 18 about the danger of what can happen when hate 19 goes unchallenged and there is indifference in the 20 face of the oppression of others; learning how and 21 why the Holocaust happened is an important compo-22 nent of the education of citizens of the United 23 States.

24 (6) Today, those who deny that the Holocaust
25 occurred or distort the true nature of the Holocaust

1 continue to find forums, especially online; this denial
2 and distortion dishonors those who were persecuted,
3 and murdered, making it even more of a national 4 imperative to educate students in the United States
5 so that they may explore the lessons that the Holo-
6 caust provides for all people, sensitize communities
7 to the circumstances that gave rise to the Holocaust,
8 and help youth be less susceptible to the falsehood
9 of Holocaust denial and distortion and to the de-
10 structive messages of hate that arise from Holocaust
11 denial and distortion.

12 (7) Currently, many States, including Cali-
13 fornia, Connecticut, Florida, Illinois, Indiana, Ken-
14 tucky, Michigan, New Jersey, New York, Pennsyl-
15 vania, and Rhode Island, require by law that schools
16 teach students about the Holocaust; more schools
17 and teachers can and should deliver quality Holo-
18 caust education.

19 (8) While there are thriving professional devel-
20 opment programs across the United States delivered 21 by Holocaust education centers, such as members of 22 the Association of Holocaust Organizations, many 23 students still have little exposure to education about 24 the events of the Holocaust and its relevance to their 25 lives, in part due to the many financial and logistical

1 barriers to getting resources from Holocaust edu-
2 cation centers to students in the classroom.

3 (9) The Federal Government, especially the De-
4 partment of Education, has a role to play in pro-
5 moting resources and training that can assist teach-6 ers and primary and secondary schools incorporate 7 the study of the Holocaust into their curriculum, to 8 help ensure that students have access to accurate
9 and engaging historical information about the Holo-
10 caust, and the Department of Education is well-posi-
11 tioned to assist Holocaust education centers in over-
12 coming many of the barriers to expanding Holocaust
13 education, which will allow more students to learn
14 the lessons of the Holocaust.

15 SEC. 3. DEFINITIONS.

16 In this Act:

17 (1) ELIGIBLE ENTITY.—The term “eligible enti-18 ty” means—

19 (A) a local educational agency (as defined

25 U.S.C. 7171 et seq.); or

11 (3) HOLOCAUST.—The term “Holocaust”
12 means the systematic, bureaucratic, state-sponsored 13 persecution and murder of approximately 6,000,000
14 Jews by the Nazi regime and its collaborators. Dur-
15 ing the era of the Holocaust, German authorities
16 also targeted other groups because of their perceived
17 “racial inferiority”, such as Roma gypsies, the dis-
18 abled, and some of the Slavic people (Poles, Rus-19 sians, and others). Other groups were persecuted on 20 political, ideological, and behavioral grounds, among

24 The term “Holocaust denial and distortion” means 25 discourse and propaganda that deny the historical

3 World War II, known as the Holocaust or the USC
4 Shoah. Holocaust denial refers specifically to any at-5 tempt to claim that the Holocaust did not take 6 place. Holocaust distortion refers to intentional ef-
7 forts to excuse or minimize the impact of the Holo-
8 caust or its principal elements, including collabo-9 rators and allies of Nazi Germany, to blame the 10 Jews for causing their own genocide, or to portray 11 the Holocaust as a positive historical event.

12 (5) HOLOCAUST EDUCATION CENTER.—The 13 term “Holocaust education center” means an insti-
14 tution that furthers the teaching and learning about 15 the Holocaust by offering programs for students and

8 (C) uses stories, testimonies, photos, dia-
